San Jose State Football

The current chapter of San Jose State football began December 17, 2009 when Mike MacIntyre was named head coach. San Jose State took on every challenge in 2010 with "no excuses and no regrets" and is well prepared for the 2011 season.

Coach MacIntyre's program is based on discipline and conditioning and his four building blocks for success.

- Foundation

"It's our job to help these young men gain responsibility and accountability while they're with us."

- Family

"I want us to grow as a team and really care about each other."

- Future

"That's academics. It's a year-round process to be successful. Our players will learn how to succeed at and graduate from San Jose State."

- Football

"If a player has a good foundation, if he loves and cares about his teammates, and if he's doing really well in school,
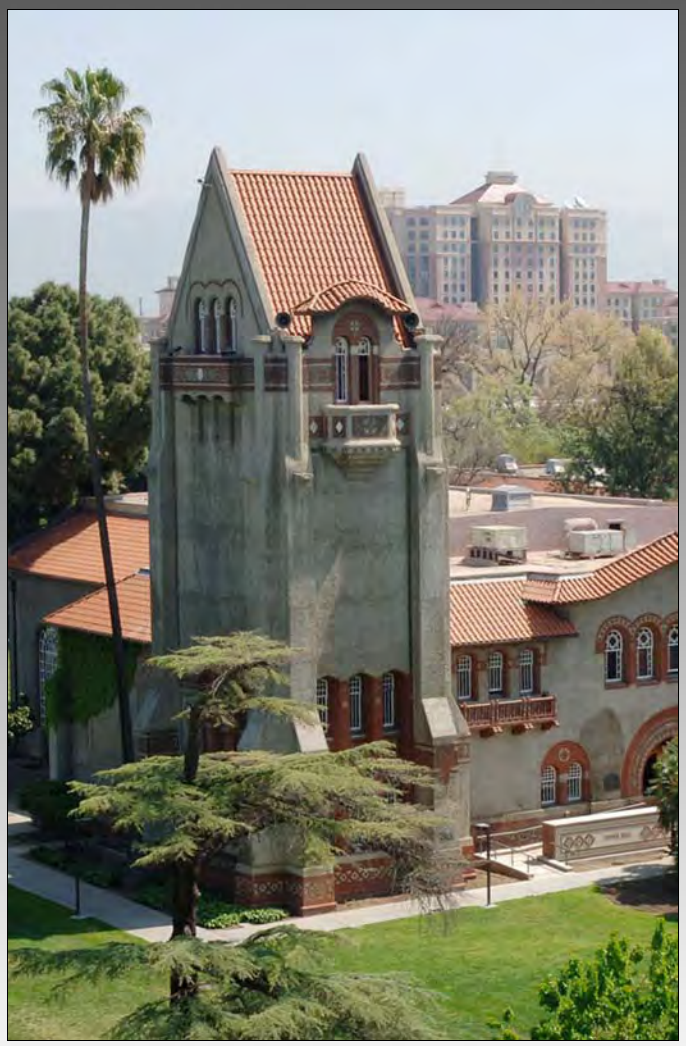
then he will be a focused football player."

San José State University



Founded in 1857, SJSU is the oldest public institution of higher education on the West Coast. Its distinctive character has been forged by its long history, location, and vision - a blend of the old and the new, the traditional and the innovative.

There is an uncompromising commitment to offer access to higher education to all who meet the criteria for admission, yielding a stimulating mix of age groups, cultures, and economic backgrounds for teaching, learning, and research.

Located in the center of San José, the University offers 134 bachelor's and master's degrees and the excitement of a large, metropolitan campus where many cultures meet. Yet, students get personal attention in the setting of the university's seven colleges.

Known for the high quality of its academic programs, its excellent faculty, and its diverse and committed student body, San José State successfully educates students to compete in today's complex, high tech and global economy.

San José State is annually ranked among the top-ten masters-level public universities in the West by U.S. News & World Report's survey of "America's Best Colleges."

San José State is the number-one supplier of education, engineering, computer science and business graduates to Silicon Valley, the world's high tech capital. One of the largest universities in the 23-campus California State University (CSU) system, SJSU attracts students from throughout the United States and 100 countries of the world.

Academic Success

Ninety-seven (97) Spartans from the last six San Jose State football teams have earned a bachelor's degree. Four also have earned a master's degree.

Student-Athlete Success Services

The mission of Student-Athlete Success Services (SASS) is to provide quality programming aimed at developing well-rounded San Jose State University student-athletes.

Graduation and preparation for life beyond graduation is the ultimate goal.

Specifically, SASS promotes student-athlete academic achievement, personal accountability, and works to ensure that student-athletes understand and comply with NCAA, WAC, MPSF, and SJSU rules and regulations. In doing so, we prepare our student-athletes for the opportunities their futures hold for them.

SUCCESS

Student Development – SASS promotes student development through the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

Unique – SASS programming takes into consideration student-athletes' unique issues.

Community - Community involvement and appreciation for diversity is encouraged and promoted.

Compliance – SASS promotes NCAA, WAC, MPSF and SJSU standards for integrity.

Education - SASS consults with and educates about the various departments on campus where student-athletes may obtain support.

Self-sufficiency - Student-athletes should develop self-sufficiency, personal responsibility, and the ability to make informed decisions.

Standards – Graduation is the expected standard for all student-athletes.

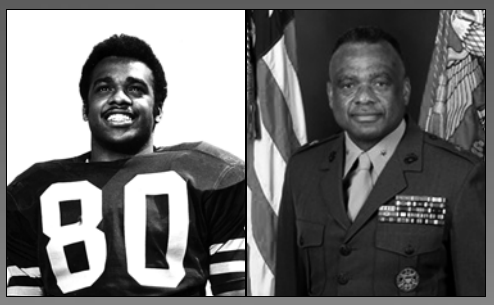
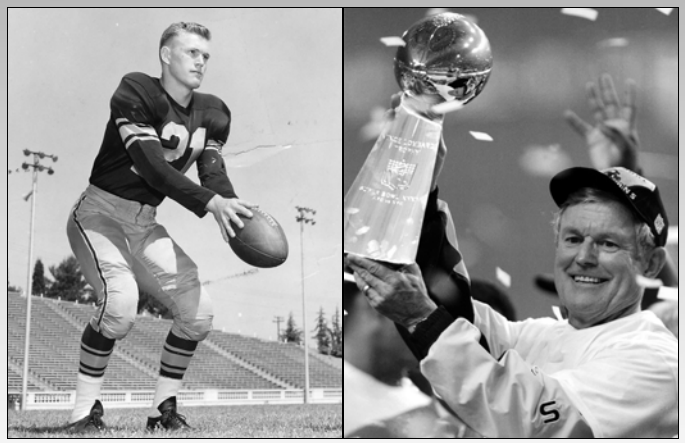
Success Stories

Bob Ladouceur was a defensive back on the 1975 and 1976 teams. As the head coach of the De La Salle High School football program in Concord, Calif., his teams won 151 consecutive games between 1992 and 2004.



Tony Jackson was a co-captain of the 1970 football team. Today, he holds the rank of Major General in the United States Marine Corps.

Charles "Chuck" Davidson is a 1957 graduate who is a successful Bay Area home builder. He is founder of DKB Homes LLP, the Charles W. Davidson Co., Davidson Homes, DKD Property Mgt., and L&D Construction. His endeavors support the Bay Area economy and local education. Mr. Davidson is an avid fan of Spartan football and generous supporter of the University.



Dick Vermeil was a quarterback on the 1956 and 1957 teams. He is the only football coach to engineer coaching victories in a Rose Bowl and a Super Bowl.

The Charles W. Davidson College Of Engineering

The vision of the Charles W. Davidson College Of Engineering is to be a learning community that empowers its students to better the world through innovative applications of engineering knowledge and skills.

Students receive an understanding of the social and economic context in which technologies are developed and used in today's competitive global economy. They gain a firm ethical grounding and guidance for their beneficial applications. The applications could be for social benefit, economic advancement, security, or the environmental sustainability of the world.

The College is a vibrant community of students, faculty, staff, alumni, and industry professionals through strategic collaborations with Silicon Valley, California, national and global partners.

The Charles W. Davidson College Of Engineering offers the following majors: Aviation and Technology, Chemical and Materials Engineering, Civil and Environmental Engineering, Computer Engineering, Electrical Engineering, General Engineering, Industrial and Systems Engineering, Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering.

Innovation

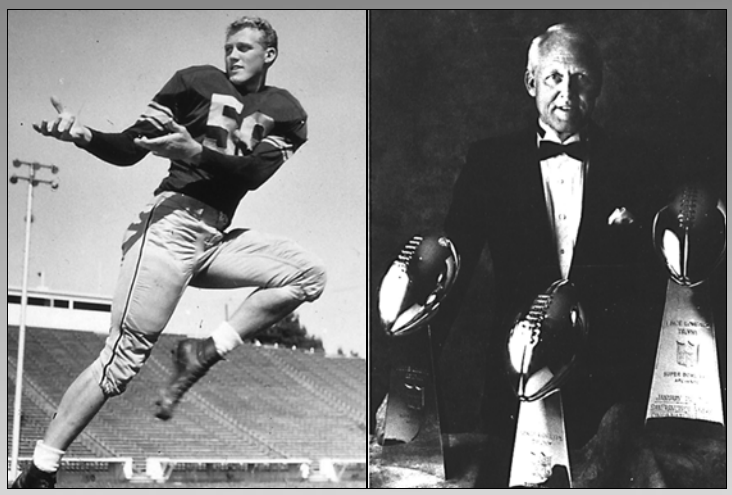
Student Involvement is the hub of co-curricular life at San Jose State University. Involved students are more satisfied with their college experiences than those who are not. Thousands of students make SJSU more than a commuter school.

At San Jose State, education stretches beyond the classroom. It's the extra-curricular experiences like inter-collegiate athletics that students remember for a lifetime and say best prepared them for their future. Make the most of your time by combining a focus on academics and getting involved in other aspects of college life, too.

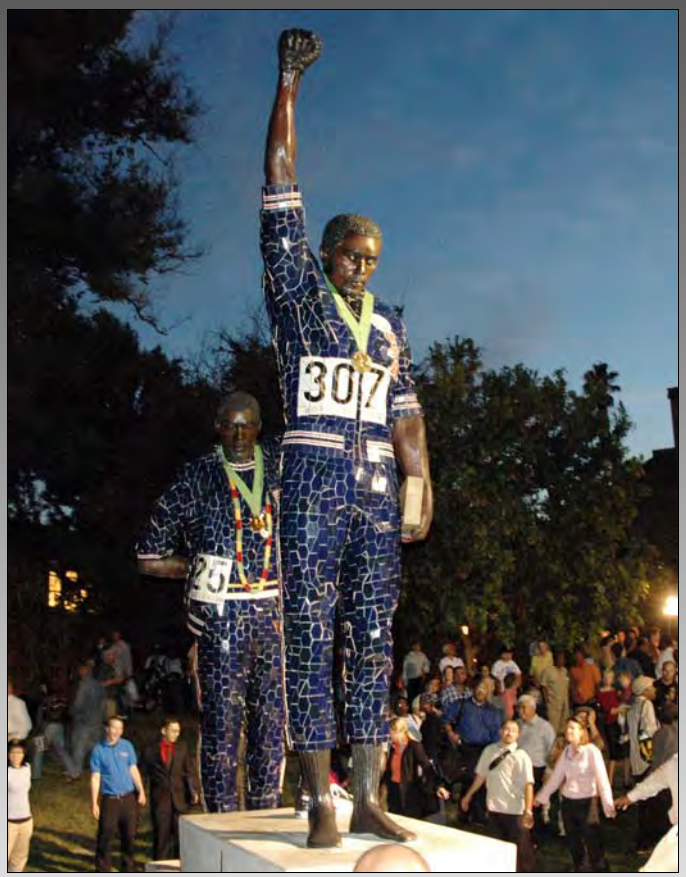
Countless opportunities for involvement at SJSU exist. Student government, service and academic clubs, and social friendship groups are just a few of the outlets for involvement.

Before you know it, you will be exploring new areas of interest - once you join one group, you will quickly find out about others. Student Involvement is located on the first floor of Clark Hall on the main campus.

Success Stories



Bill Walsh was an end on the 1952 and 1953 Spartan teams. He earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees from San Jose State. Walsh stayed intimately involved in football and became one of the game's most successful coaches leading the San Francisco 49ers to three Super Bowl victories in the 1980's. He is the only Spartan who is an inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.



Tommie Smith (front) and John Carlos (back) played professional football after their days at San Jose State. The two world-class sprinters from the 1960's are best known for their actions on the Olympic Games victory stand following Smith's gold-medal performance in 1968. A statue commemorating their historic event is located on the university's main campus.

College Of Applied Sciences & Arts

The College of Applied Sciences & Arts provides both liberal and well-defined professional education at the undergraduate and graduate levels. The College's programs provide the skills and experiences that empower graduates to be exemplary members of a diverse and global community.

The College of Applied Sciences & Arts offers the following majors: Administration of Justice, Aerospace Studies (Air Force ROTC), Health Professions, Health Science, Hospitality, Recreation & Tourism Management, Journalism and Mass Communications, Justice Studies, Kinesiology, Library and Information Science, Military Science (Army ROTC), Nursing, Nutrition and Food Science, Occupational Therapy, Social Work.

College Of Humanities & The Arts

The College of Humanities and The Arts seeks to instill in the student an understanding of human existence that is both tolerant and moral and to nurture an appreciation of human creativity as portrayed and expressed in works of language and literature, visual and performing arts, philosophy and theology, and by engagement in the creation of art and criticism.

The College of Humanities & The Arts offers the following majors: Art and Design, English and Comparative Literature, Foreign Languages, Humanities, Linguistics and Language Development, Music and Dance, Philosophy, Television, Radio, Film and Theatre dents, faculty and staff. Positioned on Tenth Street between San Carlos and San Salvador on the main campus, the Campus Village is a gateway to incredible academic resources and campus activities, the excitement of downtown San José, the opportunities of Silicon Valley, and some of the world's greatest recreational areas.

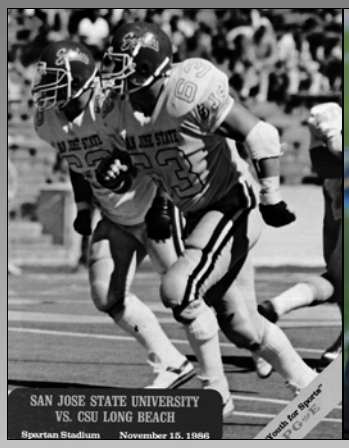
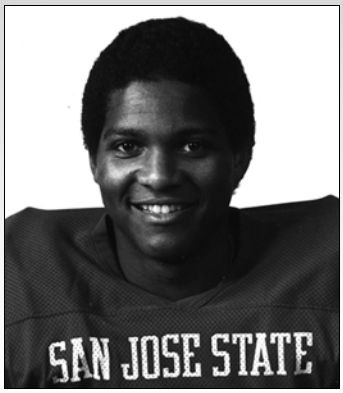
The Campus Village features apartment and suite-style living accommodations and a typical college dormitory experience. Campus Village includes recreational and study areas, a full-service computer lab, wireless internet access, an interactive gaming center, laundry facilities, meeting rooms, retail stores and underground parking for 700 vehicles. Fully equipped nearby recreational facilities offer residents space to work out, swim, play basketball, volleyball, ping-pong or pool.

Hassle-free access to the main campus is another asset. Walking to the Student Union or to The Event Center, home for the San Jose State University men's and women's basketball teams, is five minutes or less. Residents also can walk or bicycle to the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library without crossing any streets.

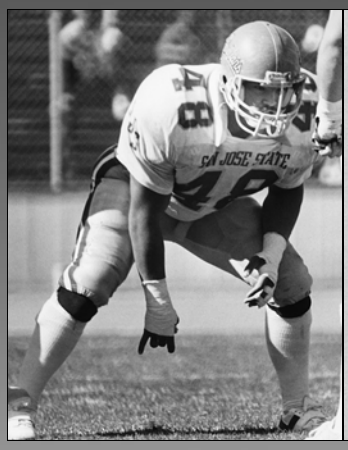
Success Stories

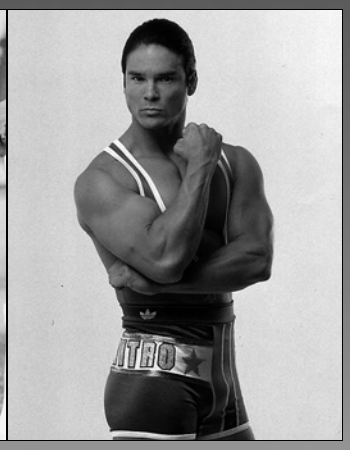


David Diaz-Infante (63) was a co-captain of the 1986 Spartans. After playing on two Super Bowl champion teams in a 12-season pro career, he now is an analyst for ESPN and ESPNU college football games.

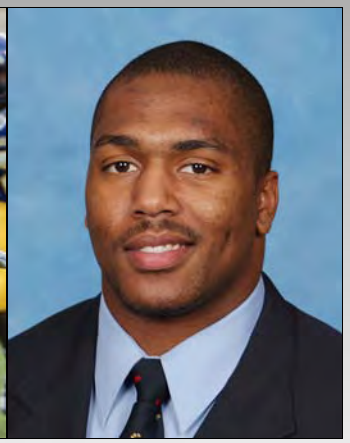


Steve Clarkson was the Spartans' starting quarterback during the 1980 through 1982 seasons. Today, he is the premier evaluator and developer of young quarterbacks nationally. He is in his third year conducting the Steve Clarkson Dreammaker Tour.





Danny Clark was a 1985 all-conference defensive lineman for the Spartans. He went on to star as Nitro in the original American Gladiators television series.



Dimitrous Chattman is the latest San Jose State football player to earn a master's degree. The San Diego native played on the 2004 through 2008 Spartan teams. He is employed by the Oakland Raiders as a group sales and fund-raising account representative.

College of Social Sciences

The mission of the College of Social Sciences is to educate students in human behavior, in its many past and present cultural forms, in individual, group, national and international contexts, and to empower students as democratic participants in a rapidly changing world. Students develop a solid foundation in the social sciences, and understand how knowledge in the social sciences is acquired and evaluated. Students think analytically about themselves and the world in which they live. They prepare for a wide variety of careers in education, the professions, business, government and social services.

College of Science

The mission of the College of Science is to prepare students for rewarding careers in biological sciences, chemistry, computer science, geology, mathematics, meteorology, and physics; provide core biology, chemistry, mathematics, meteorology, geology and physics courses; enable undergraduates to achieve a well-rounded education by attaining the quantitative, critical thinking, and scientific skills necessary for lifelong learning and informed decision-making on scientific issues; prepare future teachers with the appropriate math and science content; and foster high levels of student learning and faculty development.

Spartan Strength

"The Koret Athletic Training Center has everything necessary to train our football program. The 10,000 square-foot center allows many student-athletes to perform different exercises simultaneously. We focus on completing a lot of work in very little time. There is no time to sit and rest. The Koret Center's proximity to Spartan Stadium, grass practice fields, sprint turf, sand pit, and the players' locker and meeting rooms is unique to college football and allows for greater use of time leading to more efficient training sessions. We are very fortunate to have this great facility at San Jose State." – Dave Forman, San Jose State football strength & conditioning coach

"Protection"

- Identify predispositions for injury or any muscular imbalance through a series of assessments and screens

- Provide the basis for creating a training program that is safe and orthopedically sound, addresses individual needs, and seeks to reduce the incidence and severity of injury

"Preparation"

- Develop all the physical skills necessary to compete at a high level
- Focus on improving strength, speed, power, stamina, agility, flexibility, kinesthetic awareness, and body composition through a football-specific, individualized, periodized training program
- Maximize genetic potential

"Perception"

- Use mental discipline skills in training
- Focus on controlling what one can control, properly responding to and overcoming adversity
- Trust and believe in the program, their coaches, their teammates and themselves

Mike MacIntyre
Head Coach

Mike MacIntyre was named the 29th San Jose State University football coach on December 17, 2009.

Entering his second season in his first head coaching position, MacIntyre clearly has his stamp on the San Jose State program. Before his 2010 on-field debut, the Spartans' coach instituted the most comprehensive recruiting plan ever at the university and initiated a "summer bridge" program for his first recruiting class to provide his newcomers a smooth transition into life as a college football player. Facing five nationally-ranked teams in the first six weeks of the season, he emphasized and stressed year-round conditioning. A 1-12 record does not describe how the Spartans gave #11-Wisconsin more than the Badgers wanted to handle in September, rebuilt themselves repeatedly due to injuries, and were positioned late for a win in four of their final five games.

The experiences gained and lessons learned by the young team were noticed conference-wide and nationally. Linebacker Keith Smith became the first San Jose State player to be named a Western Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year and a Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-America. Linebacker Vince Buhagiar, wide receiver Noel Grigsby and punter Harrison Waid also received Freshman All-America recognition. No other Football Bowl Subdivision had more 2010 Freshman All-Americas than San Jose State - a testament to the early returns on the MacIntyre recruiting process.

Now in his 21st season of football coaching, the 46-year old MacIntyre came to San Jose State after two seasons as the defensive coordinator at Duke University. His defensive units recorded some of the Blue Devils' best annual statistics over a 20-year span. In 2009, Duke's five wins were the most in a season by the Blue Devils since 1994. Three Duke defenders received 2009 All-Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) honors – the university's largest total in a single season in several years. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) named him its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year.

Prior to joining the staff at Duke, MacIntyre spent five seasons in the NFL with the New York Jets (2007) and Dallas Cowboys (2003-06) coaching defensive backs. Working for legendary coach Bill Parcells, the Cowboys returned to the playoffs in 2003 and again in 2006 after missing out on post-season competition during the 2000 through 2002 seasons.

MacIntyre has coached on both sides of the ball, spending four years at Ole Miss (1999-2002) where he started as the wide receivers coach for two seasons and the defensive secondary coach in his final two years. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002

Talk About Mike MacIntyre

"Mike is a high energy guy who is an outstanding coach and a superior recruiter. He is a son of a head coach and has been around football all his life. He will do a great job in bringing good football players, and quality individuals, to San Jose State. I know he will do everything he can to insure that the program reaches the high standards he will set for it."– Bill Parcells, Miami Dolphins Executive Vice-President - Football Operations

"As much as Mike MacIntyre learned from Parcells – everything from talent evaluation to practice organization to player motivation – his heart was in college coaching. It's what he had known, what he had seen, all his life." - Jon Wilner, San Jose Mercury News, September 2, 2010.

"...I've had the privilege of hiring Mike not once, but twice, and would do it a third time if I could. Obviously, he has coaching in his blood as his father, George, is one of the finest football coaches I've been lucky enough to know. Mike also has had the fortune of being around some terrific football coaches and he has taken advantage of it by learning from all of them. He has great energy and passion for football and is a true student of the game. His team will be prepared to play on Saturdays. Most importantly, Mike will have a very positive impact on the lives of the young men in the San Jose State program, both on and off the field..." – Duke University Head Coach David Cutcliffe

"I just know that they got themselves a great coach in the sense that he recruited me when I was coming out of high school for Ole Miss and he really sold me on Ole Miss. I couldn't say that I wouldn't have gone to Ole Miss if it hadn't been for him, but he really sold me on it. So, they have a great recruiter and a great guy, an all-around professional. He's coached professional and college, the best of both worlds, so I think they got themselves a great coach." – San Francisco 49ers All-Pro linebacker Patrick Willis

Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.

Along his coaching trail, he has mentored many current NFL players including Cincinnati Bengals safety Roy Williams, a Pro Bowl player each of the four seasons MacIntyre coached him in Dallas. MacIntyre was instrumental in recruiting current San Francisco 49ers All-Pro linebacker Patrick Willis to Mississippi.

His coaching career began as a two-year graduate assistant at the University of Georgia (1990-91). He then worked one year as the defensive coordinator at Davidson (1992), four at Tennessee Martin (1993-96), and two at Temple (1997-98).

A 1989 graduate of Georgia Tech, he played two seasons (1987-88) at free safety and punt returner for head coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George MacIntyre, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85.

MacIntyre earned a bachelor's degree in business management at Georgia Tech and a master's degree in education with an emphasis on sports management from Georgia in 1991.

Born on March 14, 1965, in Miami, Fla., he and his wife, Trisha, have three children, Jennifer, a sophomore at Baylor University, Jay Michael and Jonston.

Klayton Adams
Tight Ends Coach

Klayton Adams joined the San Jose State University football coaching staff in April 2011 as the tight ends coach.

Adams came to the Spartans after two seasons at Sacramento State. In his first full-time Division I coaching experience, he was the Hornets' tight ends/offensive tackles coach in 2009 and the offensive line coach in 2010. He was promoted to offensive coordinator/offensive line coach after the 2010 season.

While at Sacramento State, he coached three players to All-Big Sky Conference honors. His 2010 offensive linemen paved the way for the school's best ground attack over a five-season span averaging 170.4 yards per game.

The Sacramento, Calif., native is a Boise State University graduate who majored in mass communication/journalism. He was an offensive lineman on the 2003 and 2004 Bronco teams that had a 24-2 win loss record, won two Western Athletic Conference championships and played in the 2003 PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl and the 2004 Liberty Bowl. As a senior, Adams was a second-team All-WAC selection.

He began his coaching career at Boise State in 2005 as a student assistant. In 2006, Adams was the Broncos' offensive graduate assistant working primarily with the offensive line. He moved on to Western Washington University for the 2007 and 2008 seasons as the offensive line coach/run game coordinator.

Adams and his wife, Stefani, have a daughter, Mya.

Kent Baer
Defensive Coordinator/ Linebackers Coach

Kent Baer is in his fourth season on the San Jose State University football staff. After two seasons as the linebackers coach, he added the duties of defensive coordinator in 2010.

In his first three seasons with the Spartans, Baer's teachings produced two 2010 freshman All-America linebackers in Keith Smith and Vince Buhagiar and a two-time second-team All-WAC selection in Justin Cole. Smith led all 2010 Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) players in tackles and was the Western Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year. Cole was a free agent signee who was on the Kansas City Chiefs' active roster in 2010.

San Jose State is the seventh FBS university in which he is the defensive coordinator. Baer's best units excel at stopping the run. At Notre Dame in 2004, the Fighting Irish yielded just five rushing touchdowns and was third nationally in rushing defense. In 2002, Notre Dame was nationally ranked in scoring defense (9th), pass efficiency defense (10th), rushing defense (10th), and total defense (13th). Baer was recognized for the Irish's rankings that season as a Frank Broyles Award finalist, recognizing the nation's most outstanding assistant coach. Arizona State was seventh nationally in total defense in 1992.

Baer has participated in eight bowl games and the 1986 NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. He was Notre Dame's interim head coach for the 2004 Insight Bowl. Three teams - Notre Dame in 2002 (17th), California in 1991 (8th) and Idaho in 1986 (16th) finished a season ranked in the Top-20 by the Associated Press.

Among a select group of coaches to work at the three Bay Area FBS schools, he was at Stanford for four bowl games including the 2000 Rose Bowl during his seven seasons on the staff. The 2001 Cardinal led the Pac-10 in rushing defense - just the second Stanford unit to top the conference in that category. California won 17 of 23 games in his final two seasons there.

The last 26 years, he has coached and coordinated the New Era Bowl in Japan. The game annually integrates top Japanese college players with selected American players and coaches.

Baer was a standout linebacker at Utah State during the 1969 through 1972 seasons. He set a school record for total tackles, 116, a record that stood for 10 years. Baer graduated from Utah State in 1973 as a physical education and recreation major.

He has three adult sons – Brian, Aaron James (A.J.), and Steven Blake. Baer also has three grandchildren through his son, Brian, and wife, Kristen - girls, Alex and Isabella, and a boy, Max.

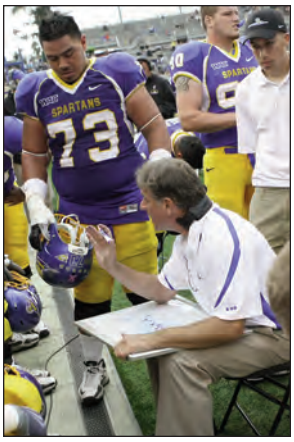
Gary Bernardi
Offensive Line Coach

Gary Bernardi joined the San Jose State football staff in January 2010. Entering his second season with the Spartans in 2011 and 30th season coaching in the Football Bowl Subdivision, he is coaching the offensive linemen.

Throughout his professional career, he has been connected with winning programs, established his reputation as a keen recruiter and developed all-star offensive linemen, tight ends and wide receivers. Twelve times, he has coached in major college post-season bowl games. Five of them were Rose Bowl appearances with USC (1988, 1989, 1990) and UCLA (1999).



Bernardi came to San Jose State after coaching offensive linemen and tight ends at UNLV from 2005 through 2009. A fixture in the Pac-10 Conference, he was an assistant coach at the University of Arizona (1980-86), the University of Southern California (1987-92) and UCLA (1994-2003). Bernardi also spent the 2004 season as the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Northern Arizona University.

The 1976 Cal State Northridge graduate majored in physical education. He started coaching in 1973 before his 19th birthday at Bell-Jeff High located in Burbank, Calif. After two seasons, he moved on to his alma mater, Monroe High, in Sepulveda, Calif. (1975), and then to Fountain Valley (Calif.) High for four seasons (1976-1979) before entering college coaching. He also served as the head coach at Burroughs High in Burbank in 1993.

Offensive linemen Jonathan Ogden, Chad Overhauser and Kris Farris at UCLA; Dave Cadigan and Tony Boselli at USC; and wide receiver Ken Margerum, first a high school star at Fountain Valley High before excelling at Stanford, are the consensus All-America players coached by Bernardi.

Outside the coaching world, Bernardi was an active member of the ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) Association Los Angeles chapter when he was coaching at UCLA. On two occasions, he represented the ALS Association in Washington, D.C. meeting with United States senators and congressmen.

He and his wife, Leigh, a Stanford Hospital registered nurse, are the parents of three adult children. Marina is an administrative assistant for Medtronic, Inc., in San Antonio, Texas. Twins, Briana and Joe, were NCAA Division I student-athletes. Briana, has a master's degree from UNLV and was a catcher for the 2006-10 Rebel softball teams. Joe, a four-year starting center in football at Fresno State, is a 2011 University of Tennessee football intern. Coach Bernardi's brother, Rob Bernardi, is the director of athletics at Nicholls State University.

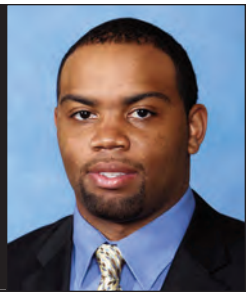
Charles Clark
Defensive Backs Coach



Charles Clark joined the San Jose State University football coach staff in March 2010. In his second season with the Spartans, Clark returns as the defensive secondary coach.

He came to San Jose State after serving two seasons at Duke University, where he worked with head coach Mike MacIntyre. In 2008, Clark was a quality control intern who had scouting, film breakdown, and recruiting responsibilities and helped the special teams coordinator and defensive assistant coaches. In 2009, he was promoted to a graduate assistant position assigned to the defensive unit. His game-day duties included relaying signals to the Blue Devils' defensive players on the field.

The 2007 University of Mississippi graduate majored in banking and finance. He was a four-year letterwinner as a safety on the 2003 through 2006 University of Mississippi football teams. Clark played in 47 games and started every game from his sophomore through senior seasons. In 2004, he was the leading tackler with 76 tackles on an Ole Miss football team that included his roommate and current San Francisco 49ers All-Pro linebacker Patrick Willis.

The native of Green Cove Springs, Fla., has taken master's degree classes in humanities at Duke University. He has one daughter, CadeMorgan Olivia Clark (4).

John DeFilippo
Offensive Coordinator/ Quarterbacks Coach

After spending five seasons with National Football League teams working with high-profile, young quarterbacks, John DeFilippo joined the San Jose State University football coaching staff in April 2010 as the quarterbacks coach.

Heading into 2011, DeFilippo is the Spartans' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. In his first season with the Spartans, he nurtured an early-season two-quarterback system that resulted in Jordan La Secla being named full-time starter and more than 3,000 team passing yards in a season for just the eighth time in school history. San Jose State put forth a particularly potent passing attack the final six games averaging 325.8 yards a game.

DeFilippo came to the Spartans from the New York Jets where he was the assistant quarterbacks coach. There, he worked with first-year quarterback Mark Sanchez who took the Jets to the AFC playoffs for the first time since 2006 and all the way to the conference championship game.

DeFilippo's NFL coaching career began in 2005 with the New York Giants as the offensive quality control coach. The Giants made the playoffs in each of his two seasons with the organization and Eli Manning as its quarterback.

In between working for the New York teams, DeFilippo was the Oakland Raiders' quarterbacks coach in 2007 and 2008. Daunte Culpepper, Josh McCown and JaMarcus Russell were among the quarterbacks he coached there.

DeFilippo began his coaching career in 2000 as the Fordham University quarterbacks coach. He also served as the graduate assistant coach at the University of Notre Dame in 2001 and 2002 and was the quarterbacks coach at Columbia University during the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

The 2000 graduate of James Madison University majored in speech communication. He played quarterback, earned four varsity letters for the Dukes and was a member of the James Madison team that won the 1999 Atlantic-10 Conference championship. As an undergraduate, he completed training camp coaching internships with the Carolina Panthers in 1997 and the Indianapolis Colts in 1998.

The native of Youngstown, Ohio, is the son of Boston College director of athletics Gene DeFilippo.

Kirk Doll

Special Teams Coordinator/ Running Backs Coach

Kirk Doll became a member of the San Jose State football coaching staff in April 2011. In his first season with the Spartans, he will coordinate the special teams and coach the running backs.

Doll brings more than 30 years of major college and professional football coaching experience to the Spartans. He coached on teams that played in 16 bowl games, won one BCS national championship, and played in two American Football Conference playoffs.

The new Spartan assistant most recently was the special teams coach for the Omaha Nighthawks of the United Football League in 2010.

The 1974 graduate of East Carolina University earned a second bachelor's degree from Wichita State University in 1977. As a college player, he earned letter awards as a defensive lineman on the 1971 and 1972 East Carolina teams.

His five-decade football coaching career began at Wichita State in 1975 as a graduate assistant. After two seasons as an assistant coach at Texas City (Texas) High, he was appointed tight ends coach at Iowa State for the 1979 season.

He was the offensive line coach at Tulsa (1980-84), outside linebackers coach at Arizona State (1985-87), linebackers coach at Texas A&M (1988-93), had various responsibilities including assistant head coach at Notre Dame (1994-2001), and the assistant head coach and linebackers coach at Louisiana State (2002-03) before his first foray into professional football coach. The 2003 LSU team won the Sugar Bowl and was declared the Bowl Championship Series national champion.

In each of his three seasons with Denver (2004-06), the Broncos had a winning record and advanced to the 2005 American Football Conference championship game.

Doll returned to Texas A&M for two more seasons (2008-09) as tight ends coach/special teams coach.

He and his wife, Kathy, are the parents of three adult children, Kate, Kelsey and Kyle. Kate is a graduate of Louisiana State University employed by a New Orleans-based advertising agency. Kelsey also is a Louisiana State University graduate who works for a construction firm based in Baton Rouge, La. Kyle is a sophomore tight end on the 2011 Texas State University football team.

Jim Jeffcoat
Defensive Line Coach

With more than 20 years as a NFL player and coach, Jim Jeffcoat joined the San Jose State University coaching staff as the defensive line coach in March 2011.

Jeffcoat was one of the league's most reliable, productive and consistent defensive linemen during a 15-year career with the Dallas Cowboys (1983-94) and the Buffalo Bills (1995-97). Originally the Cowboys' first-round draft choice out of Arizona State in 1983, the Long Branch, N.J., native played 227 NFL games - one of the top 40 totals by a player when he concluded his career. His 102.5 career sacks ranks among the top-25 in league history.

He played on Dallas' Super Bowl XXVII and XXVIII winning teams and seven other Cowboys and Bills playoff teams.

Jeffcoat began his coaching career with Dallas in 1998 first as an assistant defensive line coach. After two seasons, he coached the Cowboys' defensive ends for five seasons. He and head coach Mike MacIntyre worked together for Cowboys head coach Bill Parcells during the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

The new San Jose State defensive line coach joined the Spartans after coaching the University of Houston defensive linemen during the 2008 through 2010 seasons.

The 1982 Arizona State graduate majored in communications. The three-year starter received honorable mention All-America and All-Pac-10 Conference recognition. Following his college career, he was named to the all-time Fiesta Bowl team in 1991 and was a 1994 Arizona State Hall of Fame inductee.

Jeffcoat has a history of participating in meaningful community activities. The New Jersey Sportswriters Association bestowed upon him its Unsung Hero Award for community service in 1991. In 2000, he and his Cowboys defensive players participated in the team's "Lineman Weigh-In" sponsored by Campbell Soup that resulted in a donation of 21,064 cans of soup to The Salvation Army Irving Corps Community Center and the Faith Mission Food Bank in Wichita Falls, Texas.

He and his wife, Tammy, are the parents of four children - Jaren, twins Jackson and Jacqueline, and Jasmine. Jaren is a 2011 graduate of Norwich University who played four seasons on the men's basketball team. Jackson is a sophomore defensive end at the University of Texas. Jacqueline is a sophomore and in her second season on the University of Oklahoma women's basketball team.

Andy LaRussa
Cornerbacks Coach/ Assistant Special Teams Coordinator

Andy LaRussa joined the San Jose State football coaching staff in June 2011 as the cornerbacks coach and assistant special teams coordinator. LaRussa comes to the Spartans from Northern Arizona University.

At Northern Arizona, LaRussa coached cornerbacks and safeties and all phases of the kicking game. He was an integral component of a Lumberjack defensive staff that produced the top-ranked team in the Big Sky Conference in scoring defense, rushing defense and quarterback sacks in 2010. Northern Arizona was ranked in the Football Subdivision's Top-25 in rushing defense (5th), quarterback sacks (10th), total defense (14th) and pass defense (22nd). His defensive backs and special teams players earned four All-Big Sky post-season honors in his two seasons.

In his seventh season as a NCAA Division I assistant football coach, LaRussa spent four seasons at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. He was the defensive graduate assistant and worked with the linemen, linebackers and secondary during his tenure. He also was UNLV's assistant special teams coordinator, assistant video coordinator and assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Four of his Rebel players were named All-Mountain West Conference including 2008 conference Defensive Player of the Year in linebacker Beau Bell. Teammate Eric Wright and Bell were NFL draft choices following their senior seasons. Wright was a 2007 second round choice of the Cleveland Browns; Bell, a Browns' fourth round pick the following season.

LaRussa began his coaching career in 2003 as a player-coach for the Ostai Marines of NFL Italy. While coaching two seasons overseas, he also was the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator at St. Francis High in LaCanada, Calif.

As a player, he played his college football at Glendale (Calif.) College before transferring to Southern Utah University . LaRussa completed his playing career with Ostia of NFL Italy.

The 2002 Southern Utah University graduate majored in physical education. He is pursuing his master's degree in education through the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

LaRussa and his wife, the former Briana Bernardi, were married in 2011.

Did You Know?

Bill Walsh (San Francisco), Dick Vermeil (Philadelphia, St, Louis, Kansas City) and Al Saunders (San Diego) are San Jose State graduates who became National Football League (NFL) head coaches.

Dom Capers (Carolina, Houston), Herman Edwards (New York Jets, Kansas City), Dennis Erickson (Seattle, San Francisco) and John Mackovic (Kansas City) are former San Jose State assistant football coaches who went on to NFL head coaching jobs. Marty Feldman, another Spartan assistant coach, was the Oakland Raiders' head coach when the team belonged to the American Football League.

Mike Martz (St. Louis) was a one-time San Jose State graduate assistant who became a NFL head coach.

Former San Jose State head coaches Dudley DeGroot (Washington) and Darryl Rogers (Detroit) later took NFL head coaching positions.

One-time San Jose State head coach John Ralston was the Denver Broncos' head coach long before taking over the Spartans.

Terry Malley
Wide Receivers Coach/ Recruiting Coordinator

Terry Malley is in his third season on the San Jose State University football coaching staff. In 2011, he will be the wide receivers coach and serve as the team's recruiting coordinator for the second year in a row. When he joined the staff in 2009, he was the assistant head coach for offense and the quarterbacks coach. In 2010, he coached the running backs.

Malley came to the Spartans after spending 14 seasons with the San Jose SaberCats where he was regarded as one of the keenest offensive minds in Arena Football League history. In his nine seasons as the team's offensive coordinator, San Jose won three Arena Football League championships, led the league in scoring four times and was second four other seasons. The 2007 San Jose team scored 1,012 points and averaged 63.2 points a game - the third highest scoring team in league history.

With 32 years of coaching experience, Malley's coaching roots are in the Bay Area. Two-year stints at San Jose's Leland High (1976-77) and Moreau High in Hayward (1978-79) preceded five seasons (1980-84) as an assistant coach for legendary coach Pat Malley, his dad, at Santa Clara University, his alma mater. Terry was named head coach in 1985 and led the Broncos to a 47-39-1 win-loss record over eight seasons. Six of his eight teams were nationally-ranked among NCAA Division II schools.

Malley coached 27 all-conference players including long-time National Football League pros Brent Jones, a standout tight end for the San Francisco 49ers, and two-time Pro Bowl punter Bryan Barker. He was the Western Football Conference Coach of the Year in his first season directing Santa Clara to an 8-2-1 record and a conference championship.

His first experience in professional football came in 1994 when he was named the Director of Football Operations for the SaberCats, an Arena Football League expansion franchise. Malley added the duties of General Manager in 1995. In 1999, he returned to the field as the offensive coordinator after a mid-season coaching change and retained his general manager responsibilities through 2006.

As a player, Malley was a quarterback, team captain and four-year letterwinner for Santa Clara during the 1972 through 1975 seasons. The 1976 Santa Clara University graduate majored in business management. He and his wife, Leslie, have three children – Christina and sons, Patrick and Ryan.

Bryan and his wife, Vrinda, reside in Los Gatos.

Vavae Tata
Graduate Assistant – Defense

Vavae Tata is in his second season with the San Jose State University football staff as the graduate assistant coach assigned to work with the defense.

Tata came to the Spartans after spending the 2008 and 2009 seasons as a student assistant coach at UCLA. With the Bruins, he worked with the defensive linemen and had special teams responsibilities.

His coaching career began in 2006 as the defensive line coach for McKinley High in Honolulu, Hawaii.

The 2008 graduate of UCLA was a member of the 1994 through 1998 Bruin teams. A defensive end, he played in the 1995 Aloha Bowl and the 1999 Rose Bowl. Following his playing career, he worked in the mortgage and banking industries in California and Hawaii.

The Honolulu native is pursuing a master's program in kinesiology with an emphasis in sports management.

Adam Toyama
Student Support Assistant

Adam Toyoma joined the San Jose State football staff in 2011 as the student support assistant. Toyama will provide support in the areas of recruiting and football operations for current and future Spartans.

Toyama comes to San Jose State after spending two seasons at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV) as a recruiting and operations assistant.

Toyoma's work experience includes professional and NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision positions. He was as a special events intern and student assistant to the athletics director at the University of Hawai'i in 2005. For the 2006 football season, he worked in suite sales and client relations for the Oakland Raiders. In 2007, he was an operations intern for the San Francisco 49ers. Before taking the UNLV job, he worked in facilities operations for the Stanford University athletics department.

The 2004 University of Hawai'i graduate majored in kinesiology. He earned a master's degree in sports management in 2007 from the University of San Francisco.

Football Staff

Dave Forman
Football Strength & Conditioning Coach

Dave Forman was appointed San Jose State University's football strength and conditioning coach in January 2011.

Forman joined the Spartans' staff after serving three years as a Stanford University assistant strength and conditioning coach. Working directly with the Cardinal football and wrestling programs, Stanford football won the 2011 Orange Bowl, finished fourth in the final 2010 Associated Press national poll and won a school-record 12 games in the 2010 season. The Cardinal's 2009 and 2010 back-to-back bowl appearances were a program first since 1991 and 1992. The wrestling team finished a university-best 11th at the 2011 NCAA Championships.

His Football Bowl Subdivision experiences also include serving as a graduate assistant at the University of Mississippi during the 2005 football season and working as a 2006 summer strength and conditioning intern at the University of Notre Dame.

Forman's first full-time strength and conditioning coaching position was as an assistant coach at Sacramento State in 2006 where he worked with the football and women's basketball teams. In 2007, he was Northern Arizona University's assistant strength and conditioning coach.

He also was a strength and conditioning intern for the Detroit Tigers Major League Baseball organization during the team's 2004 spring training in Lakeland, Fla.

The 2002 James Madison University graduate majored in kinesiology. He was a letterwinner on the 1999, 2000 and 2001 Dukes football teams. One of his teammates was San Jose State offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach John DeFilippo. Forman earned his master's degree in exercise science from the University of Mississippi in 2006.

The Glendale, New York native is certified by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa).

Chris Holder
Director of Strength & Conditioning

Chris Holder was named San Jose State University's Director of Strength and Conditioning in April 2007. A staff member since January 2006, he originally joined the Spartans' athletics staff as the director of football strength and conditioning. His impact was noticeable in the team's 2006 New Mexico Bowl-winning season. The highly-conditioned Spartans shut out five opponents after halftime and recorded four comeback victories in 2006.

Holder came to San Jose State after four football seasons (2002-05) at Cal Poly as the strength and conditioning head coach. He and his two-person staff designed and implemented the strength and conditioning programs for the 500-member student-athlete population. The progress was most notable in football. Cal Poly produced three consecutive winning seasons in football (2003-05) for the first time in 25 years and advanced to the second round of the 2005 NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. Six Mustang football players were named to 2005 Division I-AA All-American teams.

In his 12th year as a strength and conditioning coach, he began his professional career at Eastern Kentucky University in January 2000 as an intern working with the football and volleyball teams. Holder moved to Cal Poly in May 2000 as a strength and conditioning coach. He was the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Appalachian State University the first half of the 2002 calendar year before returning to Cal Poly.

The 2000 graduate of Eastern Kentucky University majored in physical education and earned a master's degree in kinesiology from Cal Poly in 2005. He was a starting center for the Colonels' 1997 and 1999 football teams. The 1997 Eastern Kentucky team was the Ohio Valley Conference champion.

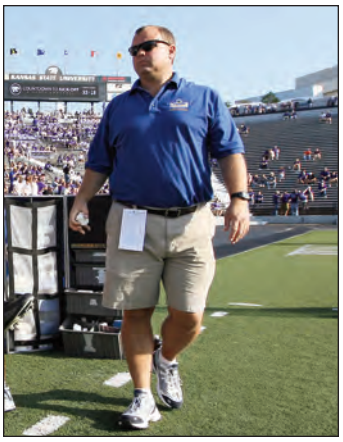
Holder is working towards his doctorate in medical qigong therapy at the International Institute of Medical Qigong in Monterey, Calif. He is certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association and is a Russian Kettlebell certified instructor. In 2007, he was promoted to RKC-Team Leader, the second highest distinction a Russian Kettlebell certified instructor can achieve. Only 27 people in the world have reached this level of achievement. He also is certified in CPR (cardiopulmonary resuscitation) and first aid by the American Red Cross. Holder is a Level IV trainer for Z-Health Solutions, a cutting-edge exercise system that helps maximize athletic performance.

He, and his wife, Jessie, are the parents of two children – son, Elogious, and daughter, Delaney.

Scott Shaw
Director of Sports Medicine

Scott Shaw was appointed San Jose State University's Director of Sports Medicine and Head Athletic Trainer in 2008 after serving the university as the associate head athletic trainer for two years.

Shaw has 19 years of athletic training experience at the major college level and three more in the high school ranks. Shaw joined the San Jose State staff after five years as the head athletic trainer at Cal State Northridge (2001-2006). His first college position was as an assistant athletic trainer at Saint Mary's (Calif.) College for nine years (1992-2001).



He has worked as an athletic trainer at a variety of major events. Shaw was the Medical Services Liaison for the 2007 and 2010 NCAA Men's Basketball Division I Championship San Jose Regionals. He also served as an athletic trainer for the 24 Hours of LeMans auto race, the 1994 World Cup, the Golden Gate Fields horse racing track in Albany, Calif., and the World Grand Prix Motorcycle Circuit.

The 1989 graduate of Washington State University majored in physical education with an athletic training emphasis. He earned a master's degree in physical education and recreation from Saint Mary's College in 1995.

Shaw is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and is an examiner for the NATA Board of certification. He is also certified by the American Red Cross in first aid and CPR as an instructor and professional rescuer.

Since 2002, he has served on the board of directors of the California State University Risk Management Authority Athletic Injury Medical Expenses Committee. Shaw is the current vice-chairman.

He resides in San Jose.

Hisashi Imura
Football Athletic Trainer

Hisashi Imura was named the football athletic trainer for San Jose State University in July 2008. He is responsible for the injury prevention, assessment and rehabilitation of the entire team; manages physician, chiropractic and orthopedic care for the student-athletes and coordinates the team's billing and insurance claims. Imura also manages a student intern program for future athletic trainers in a real-world environment.

He has worked as an athletic trainer in the high school, community college, university and professional sports settings since 2003. His affiliation with San Jose State football started in 2004 as a student athletic trainer. Before accepting his current position at San Jose State, he worked at the University of California in 2007 and was assigned the sports of football and women's gymnastics. He also worked for the Oakland Raiders during the 2004 and 2005 summers and was an intern athletic trainer during the 2006 National Football League season.

Imura has two bachelor's degrees (UCLA, history, 2000, and San Jose State, kinesiology, 2005) and earned his master's degree in kinesiology from San Jose State in 2009. He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the American Heart Association in CPR/AED. Imura's physical assessments follow the tenets of Functional Movement Screen, a program that seeks to improve athletic performance and resistance to injury.

He resides in Alameda.

Football Staff

Mike Lane
Football Equipment Manager

Mike Lane has served as the San Jose State University football equipment manager since 2001. Now in his 18th season with the Spartans, he was an assistant equipment manager for three years and a student assistant for four seasons.

Lane has worked for the San Jose Sharks as an equipment assistant and for the Northern California "Offense-Defense" football camps that served players from ages 6 to 18. With the Sharks, he was responsible for player stick repair, bench set-up at practice and games and locker room facilities at home games.

A member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association since 1998, he earned his equipment manager's certification (E.M.,C.) in 2002. He also worked at several East-West Shrine Games and for the Silicon Valley Football Classic.

Doug Osumi
Video Coordinator

Doug Osumi, who has 19 years of experience in college and professional video production, is in his seventh season as the football team's video coordinator.

Osumi came to the Spartans after serving five seasons as the video director/producer for the University of California athletics department. Besides his work at Cal, Osumi has worked for the San Francisco 49ers as a video assistant during minicamps and training camps.

The 1992 graduate of California State University, Chico, began his career in athletics as an assistant football coach at Chico (Calif.) High School in 1990. He moved on to a similar position at Marin Catholic High School in 1991.

His first foray into video production was in 1992 when he was appointed an assistant football coach at San Francisco State University. Three seasons later, he returned to Chico State in 1995 as an assistant coach and video coordinator.

Osumi earned his master's degree from Chico State in 1996 and went on to become video coordinator at the University of Hawai'i for the 1997 and 1998 school years.

Katie Parry
Football Learning Specialist

Katie Parry was appointed the learning specialist for the San Jose State football program in 2011. Parry is in her second calendar year as a member of the Spartans staff. She first joined the university in 2010 as an athletics department learning specialist.

Parry came to San Jose State from Wake Forest University. During her seven years at the Atlantic Coast Conference school, her emphasis was working with at-risk student-athletes on improving study habits and skills.

The 2005 Wake Forest graduate majored in social studies education. Besides her student-athlete services duties, she also was one of the Demon Deacons men's basketball team managers.

Parry has taught high school English, world history, civics and economics in Charlotte and Winston-Salem, N.C. For three years, she also held various operations positions for the Teach for America branch office in Charlotte.

Western Athletic Conference

Karl Benson
WAC Commissioner

Now in its 50th year of existence, the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and feature some of the nation's best intercollegiate competition. One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets. In addition, the WAC's student-athletes work to achieve the highest levels of academic success at their respective institutions.

The WAC has experienced tremendous success. Since 2001, the WAC has sent 35 teams to bowl games. The conference has sent teams to BCS bowl games in three of the last five seasons.

The WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament in 24 of the past 28 seasons. Every current WAC school has competed in the NCAA Tournament since 1990.

In 2001, the WAC partnered with ESPN for coverage of football and basketball giving the conference national exposure. The WAC officially added WAC.tv in 2006 to give fans streaming internet access to many of its postseason championships.

The WAC is the sixth oldest among the nation's 11 Division I-A conferences. Its history traces back to July 27, 1962, when the original six-team league of Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming began competition.

The first championship was held in November 1962, when Arizona won the men's cross country title. New Mexico followed with the first WAC football title. Arizona finished second in the NCAA College World Series and, less than three years later, Arizona State claimed the league's first NCAA title when the Sun Devils won the College World Series. Fresno State was the last WAC school to earn an NCAA team title when it won the College World Series in 2008.

Since 1962, changes have occurred. Before 1990, the WAC sponsored championships only in men's sports. However, a merger with the High Country Athletic Conference formed a single conference under one administrative structure, and the 1990-91 athletic year was the first in which both men and women competed under the WAC name.

The current membership was established on July 1, 2005, when Idaho, New Mexico State and Utah State joined the WAC. San Jose State, Louisiana Tech, Hawai'i, Nevada and Fresno State were existing members. For the 2012-13 season, the WAC will add Denver, UTSA, Texas State and Seattle to replace withdrawing members Boise State (2011), Fresno State (2012), Hawai'i (2012) and Nevada (2012).

Presently, the WAC crowns team and individual champions in 19 sports – eight men's and 11 women's. For the men, there are championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field. Championships for women are held in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and volleyball.

Super Bowl winners in bold-faced type

Spartan Fact:
San Jose State, Arkansas and Dayton are the only schools with two alums who coached Super Bowl-winning teams.

Bill Walsh and Dick Vermeil have combined for four Super Bowl victories. Arkansas' Jimmy Johnson and Barry Switzer have combined for three. Dayton's Chuck Noll and Jon Gruden have five Super Bowl wins between them.

The late Bill Walsh (left) coached the San Francisco 49ers to three Super Bowl victories. Dick Vermeil (right) coached the 1999 St. Louis Rams to victory in Super Bowl XXXIV.

Did You Know?

San Jose State was scheduled to play two games in Hawaii to end the 1941 season. The Spartans were in Honolulu when the attack on Pearl Harbor occurred on December 7, 1941. Many players immediately joined the local police force or the armed services. The games against the University of Hawai'i on December 13 and Willamette College of Oregon on December 16 were cancelled.

Did You Know?

In 1981 and 1987, San Jose State was the "mythical champion" of the San Francisco Bay Area. The Spartans defeated both California and Stanford in those two seasons.

Spartan Stadium

The San Jose State University football team has played its home games in Spartan Stadium since 1933. The Spartans won the first football game played in the stadium, 44-0, over San Francisco State, on October 7. Since then, the Spartans have played 360 games over 75 seasons. The team's 100th win in the stadium came on October 21, 1967, against New Mexico, 52-14. The 200th victory occurred in 2005. SJSU's home field record is 218-125-17 entering the 2011 season.

Spartan Stadium currently seats 30,456 for football. Every seat puts the spectator either close to or right on top of the action. Two stadium expansions and renovations in the 1980's increased the seating capacity from 18,000 to over 30,000.

A FieldTurf surface replaced natural grass in 2009. Replacement began in December 2008 and installation was completed in May 2009.

The multi-purpose facility is the site of the school's annual commencement ceremony. Concerts, professional and collegiate soccer, religious convocations, band competitions and high school football games also take place at Spartan Stadium.

Five Silicon Valley Football Classics were held in Spartan Stadium. Air Force in 2000, Michigan State in 2001, Fresno State in 2002, UCLA in 2003 and Northern Illinois in 2004 were bowl-game winners. The 1999 Women's World Cup and 1999 NCAA Women's College Cup soccer events attracted record-setting crowds.

The largest attendance at a home football game was a 31,681 sellout crowd at the 2003 win over Grambling State. The game marked the first time under the current stadium configuration that San Jose State had a "sellout" prior to game day.

The largest crowd to attend any event in the stadium was estimated at 37,000 for a ZZ Top music concert.

SAN JOSE
STATE UNIVERSITY

Mohammad Qayoumi
University President

Mohammad Qayoumi was appointed the 28th San Jose State University President in March 2011 and began his duties July 1, 2011 for one of the oldest and one of the largest universities in the 23-campus CSU system.

Previously, Qayoumi served as president of California State University East Bay, where under his leadership, the university adopted long-range academic and strategic plans that significantly strengthened its regional position and profile.

In addition to his more than 30 years of experience in the service of higher education and industry, Qayoumi is a licensed professional engineer and a certified management accountant. He has published eight books, more than 85 articles, and several chapters in various books. Additionally, he has presented at numerous national and international conferences on topics ranging from quality and energy to systems theory. Qayoumi is a senior member of the Institute of Electrical and electronic Engineers and has served as a Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award examiner and senior examiner.

For Qayoumi, he returns to San Jose State where he served as the Associate Vice-President for Administration from 1986 to 1995 and as an adjunct professor from 1983 through 1995.

During his six years at California State University, Northridge, Qayoumi achieved the rank of professor of engineering management. He was a tenured professor of engineering at Cal State East Bay.

Qayoumi has served his native country, Afghanistan, in various capacities, including as a senior advisor to the Minister of Finance and member of the board of directors for the Central Bank of Afghanistan.

Locally, Qayoumi is a member of the Silicon Valley Leadership Group, and serves on several boards including the Bay Area Council, the East Bay Economic Development Alliance and the Contra Costa Business Council.

President Qayoumi is a graduate of the American University of Beirut where he majored in electrical engineering. He holds master's degrees from the University of Cincinnati - a M.S. in nuclear engineering, a M.S. in electrical and computer engineering and a M.B.A. in finance and accounting. Qayoumi has his Ph.D. in electrical and computer engineering also from the University of Cincinnati.

The multi-lingual San Jose State president is fluent in English, Persian Dari, Pashto and Arabic and conversant in Italian, German and French.

His wife, Najia Karim, is a Persian poet and a clinical dietician.

• Ranked among the top 200 universities in the nation for total research spending.

• One of the top-20 universities nationally for greatest number of minority graduates. – Diverse Issues In Higher Education

Standing out from the rest

• San José State is the number one supplier of engineering, computer science and business graduates to Silicon Valley, the world's high tech capital.

• San José State is the only school in the California State University system that has undergraduate and graduate programs in nuclear science.

• The Metropolitan University Scholar's Experience (MUSE) is a program aimed at helping first-year students succeed on campus.

• The Career Expo provides recruitment opportunities for nearly 2,000 students and 100 employers. Over 300 employers visit the university annually to recruit for available positions.

• San Jose State is believed to be the first university in the country to create a Mexican-American Studies Department.

• The nationally-recognized animation program is a collaborative effort between SJSU and technology, entertainment and telecommunications industry partners.

The skyline of downtown San Jose

Situated at the hub of Silicon Valley is San Jose – the third largest city in California and the 10th largest in the nation. San Jose, strategically located at the sunny, southern tip of the San Francisco Bay, is surrounded by rolling hills and striking mountains. San Jose's vibrant and growing downtown is the setting for San Jose State University and the focus for important financial, commercial and arts communities.

Regional growth and stability are complemented by an active cultural life. San Jose is the home of the Silicon Valley High Technology and the Children's Discovery museums, the San Jose Museum of Art, San Jose Symphony, the San Jose-Cleveland Ballet, numerous galleries and arts centers, Opera San Jose, the Winchester Mystery House and other respected professional and community group theater groups.

Light rail and historic trolley lines, the 18,000-seat HP Pavilion at San Jose, convention facilities, shops and a diverse night scene add to the excitement. Reflecting the cultural richness of the community is a wide range of restaurants.

A reason the South Bay has grown so dramatically is its quality of life. The mild climate encourages an active and casual lifestyle. There are more than 100,000 acres of land for biking, rollerblading and other outdoor activities. Boasting nearly 300 days of sunshine and an average summer temperature of 74 degrees, San Jose symbolizes the best California has to offer. The region's 1.6-million residents enjoy recreational and entertainment opportunities year-round. Within a short drive are San Francisco, beaches from Santa Cruz to Carmel, the California coastal redwoods, Lake Tahoe and Yosemite National Park.

Athletics Administration

Tom Bowen was named San Jose State University's director of intercollegiate athletics on December 20, 2004. Under his leadership, San Jose State is a viable Division I-A intercollegiate athletics program with proven athletics and academic successes and financial achievements to his credit.

"CULTURE OF CHAMPIONS"

At the core of Bowen's mission for San Jose State University athletics is building a "Culture of Champions" academically, athletically and in the community. To reach that end, the Notre Dame alum instilled a greater sense of purpose, commitment and execution by student-athletes, coaches, staff, alumni and friends.

At a recent home game, Bowen welcomes back San Jose State record-setting quarterback Adam Tafralis.

The Spartans have balanced their budget or produced a modest surplus five straight years under his direction. He has re-invested these gains back into the 400-plus student-athlete population and the 16 intercollegiate Spartan teams.

Bowen continues expanding revenue opportunities for the Spartans locally, regionally and nationally. First, there was the creation of Spartan Sports Properties in conjunction with national multi-media partner Learfield Communications and a 2011 agreement with IMG College Ticket Solutions to bring San Jose State athletics to the broadest spectator base possible.

An integral member of the University's presidential staff, Bowen has a meaningful role in the University's $200-million Capital Campaign Fund, "Acceleration." The department's increased visibility the last five years also coincided with significant donations coming to the University and to the Spartan Foundation - the department's fund-raising component.

Since taking over, San Jose State produced the first Spartan teams to post three consecutive .500 or better records in the Western Athletic Conference football standings. In a longer span from the end of 2005 through 2008, San Jose State had one of the best home field records among the Football Bowl Subdivision schools in California. The 2006 Spartans capped their finest season in many years, posting a 9-4 overall record and capturing the New Mexico Bowl championship.

Athletics accomplishments add to his Culture of Champions go beyond football. In 2011, men's basketball ended a 17-year absence in post-season play; men's golf was in NCAA Regional action for the first time since 1997; women's soccer and women's golf repeated as a WAC champion; and women's water polo was fifth nationally in the final 2011 coaches' poll. Baseball, a 2009 WAC regular-season champion, posted another 35-win season in 2011. Women's gymnastics is entrenched as a NCAA Regional Championship qualifying team.

Spartans have earned All-America honors in football, women's golf, baseball and women's water polo. San Jose State had its second women's gymnastics individual NCAA Regional champion in three years in 2011. Freshmen from three sports (football, women's soccer and gymnastics) were named the 2011 WAC Freshman of the Year. Gymnast Shanice Howard was named the 2011 Arthur Ashe Jr., Sports Scholar Award winner by Diverse Issues in Higher Education. Twenty more student-athletes were honored nationally and more than 100 at the conference level for academic achievements in 2010-11.

Tom Bowen is a widely-known and highly-effective athletics administrator. The San Jose Mercury News recognizes him regularly in its Top-25 Most Powerful Sports Figures in the Bay Area.

Public Recognition awards ranks at the top among current WAC members.

Since his arrival, coaches in women's soccer, baseball, women's golf, water polo and softball have received conference Coach of the Year recognition.

In 2008, the most recent national study by Texas A&M University on behalf of the NCAA, San Jose State was named as one of 12 Division I universities cited for Overall Excellence in Diversity.

A VALUED PROFESSIONAL

Bowen's proven administrative and managerial record at San Jose State has resulted in meaningful national appointments in college athletics. He is the WAC representative on the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) Oversight Committee Athletics Directors Advisory Group. In 2011, he completed a term as one of eight FBS directors of athletics serving on the 24-member NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee. Both football appointments were a first for a San Jose State director of athletics.

At the conference level, the San Jose State athletics director helped negotiate the competitive and financial terms involving the departure of three conference members in June 2012.

He was the Tournament Director for the 2010 NCAA Men's Basketball Division I Championship first and second rounds games played in San Jose. In 2009, Bowen was one of 12 named to serve as a mentor to aspiring women and ethnic minority athletics administrators in the NCAA Fellows Leadership Program.

Bowen came to San Jose State after serving three years as the Director of Community Affairs and the executive director of the 49ers Foundation for the San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League. He directed all of the team's fund-raising activities and was responsible for alumni and current player participation in the community.

His Division I experience at the collegiate level includes athletics administration positions at the University of California and Saint Mary's College in Moraga, Calif. As an assistant and associate director of athletics at the University of California from July 2000 through September 2002, he was responsible for athletics fund-raising. Bowen was credited with developing the first comprehensive planned giving program for the Golden Bears.

At Saint Mary's College, he was the Director of Foundations and Corporate Relations from May 1995 to January 1997 before being appointed to an associate director of athletics position by the president of the college. From January 1997 through April 2000, he managed the athletics department's budget, directed a corporate sponsorship program and interacted with the academic senate, faculty and university personnel on student-athlete issues.

His first professional leadership appointment in athletics was at De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif. From 1987 through 1995, he held the positions of athletics director and assistant football coach.

EDUCATION & COMMUNITY

The 1983 graduate of the University of Notre Dame majored in theology/sociology and spent six years studying for the priesthood with the Holy Cross Fathers. Bowen went on to earn a master's degree in administration/education from the University of San Francisco in 1990.

Active throughout the entire Bay Area, he has been named to the San Jose Mercury News' Top-25 Most Powerful Sports Figures in the Bay Area. He serves on the board of the San Jose Sports Authority. He is an adjunct professor at the University of San Francisco School of Sports Management and at San Jose State University's Department of Kinesiology where he teaches sports management classes. Bowen is a frequent speaker and panelist at national workshops focusing on intercollegiate athletics and for local major businesses on the topics of leadership, management and motivation.

He is a Level 2 certified member of the College Athletic Business Management Association (CABMA) and has memberships in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and the National Society of Fund Raising Executives.

Defensive linemen Justin Cole of the Kansas City Chiefs, Carl Ihenacho, a San Diego Chargers 2011 free agent signee, and Jarron Gilbert of the New York Jets share a moment with Bowen at a 2011 fund-raising dinner.

The Denver, Colo., native and his wife, Mia, are the parents of three children: sons, Andrew and Peter, and, daughter, McKenna.

John Poch
Senior Associate Athletics Director/ Deputy Director of Athletics

John Poch returned to San Jose State University in January 2009 as a Senior Associate Athletics Director/Deputy Director of Athletics. His duties include managing the department's external relations components of fund raising and community relations and serving as the sports supervisor for baseball and women's tennis. As the driving force, the Spartan Foundation raised a record $1.7-million during its 2011 annual fund-raising drive for student-athlete scholarships.

Previously, Poch served as the Tournament Director of the 1999 and 2000 NCAA Women's College Cup hosted by San Jose State University and was an assistant coach for the Spartans' women's soccer team from 1995 to 2000. Under his direction, the 1999 College Cup attracted more than 28,000 spectators for two semifinal contests and the championship match. The 14,410 in attendance for the championship game remains the top attendance figure for a Women's College Cup contest.

As a San Jose State assistant coach, he was on the ground floor of the new Spartan program. In its first five seasons, San Jose State posted a 53-44-3 overall win-loss record.

Poch is a successful youth soccer coach with United States Soccer Federation and National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) national licenses. He coached the San Jose Pioneer High School boys' teams to three Central Coast Section championships and was named the National Coach of the Year in 2001 by the NSCAA for the Youth Girls Competitive category.

From 2000 through 2008, he was the executive director of the After-School All-Stars of Greater San Jose - a program targeting at-risk youths. In his eight years, After-School All-Stars grew from a two-person staff with a $275,000 annual operating budget to a full-time staff of 36 and 230 part-time employees and a $3.9-million budget comprised largely of dollars raised through his fundraising acumen and direction. More than 3,000 students from 50-plus elementary and middle schools in San Jose were After-School All-Stars beneficiaries.

In 2011, Poch completed course work in the Sports Management Institute – a collaboration of the Universities of Southern California, Texas, Michigan, Notre Dame and North Carolina. The Sports Management Institute provides a specialized executive management program for sports professionals.

He is a member of NACDA (National Association of College Directors of Athletics), NAADD (National Association of Athletic Development Directors) and AFP (Association of Fundraising Professionals) and remains well-connected in San Jose. He also serves on the board of directors for After-School All-Stars.

The 2001 San Jose State University graduate majored in kinesiology. As a student-athlete, he played football at West Valley College before enrolling at San Jose State.

John and his wife, Debora, a 1988 San Jose University graduate, are the parents of one daughter, Nicole.

Marie Tuite
Senior Associate Athletics Director/ Chief Operating Officer

Marie Tuite joined the San Jose State University athletics administrative team in an executive capacity in June 2010 as the Senior Associate Athletics Director/Chief Operating Officer.

At San Jose State, Tuite oversees all of the Spartans' internal components and affairs. She manages the daily operations of the department, has direct supervision of student services, compliance and business affairs and serves as sports supervisor for women's basketball, women's swimming and diving, women's water polo and men's and women's cross country.

Her professional career includes executive positions at Pacific-10 Conference universities and the NCAA. She came to the Spartans from Seattle University where she was a Special Assistant to the Athletics Director. Tuite assisted Seattle University's transition to NCAA Division I athletics status and provided administrative leadership to the Redhawks' men's basketball program successfully negotiating a facility lease of the 17,000-seat Key Arena and a local radio contract with an ESPN broadcast affiliate.

Her first athletics administrative position was at Alma (Mich.) College in 1981 as the Director of Athletic Programs and Activities for an 18-sport intercollegiate program. She joined the University of California women's athletics staff in 1984 as an assistant athletics director.

Tuite then relocated to the NCAA office in the Kansas City area and served as an Assistant Director of Championships from 1989 to 1994. She assisted the organization's sport committees in the administration of the National Collegiate Championships program and coordinated the Association's corporate partner, merchandising, promotional, and official ball programs for NCAA championships.

She returned to a campus setting in 1994 as a senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington. Her duties included overseeing the process and appointment of new head coaches, directing day-to-day operations including fiscal responsibility and leadership opportunities for numerous sports, and initiating and implementing "keys to success" for priority Husky sports programs.

A two-sport student-athlete and graduate of Central Michigan University, she was inducted into the university's Athletics Hall of Fame in 1990 as just the third female inductee. Tuite played field hockey and was a star basketball player who majored in physical education. She earned her master's degree from her alma mater in athletic administration.

Tuite is a member of NACDA (National Association of College Directors of Athletics), NACWAA (National Association of Collegiate Women's Athletics Administrators) and the Women's Sports Foundation.

The native of Livonia, Mich., has two teenage sons, Michael and John.

Liz Jarnigan
Associate Athletics Director/ Senior Woman Administrator

Liz Jarnigan joined the San Jose State University staff in June 2008. Originally named the Director for Student-Athlete Success Services, she was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Student Services in June 2009. In April 2010, Jarnigan added the responsibilities of Senior Woman Administrator.

Her current responsibilities include serving as sports supervisor for women's volleyball and softball and overseeing compliance, academics, student services, life skills, student-athlete advising and tutoring and the assignment of learning specialists.

Jarnigan came to San Jose State from the University of Tulsa. She was the Coordinator of Student Services (2001-06) and an Associate Athletics Director for Student Services (2007-08). In 2003 and 2004, she was honored locally with the Tulsa Area Girls and Women in Sports Role Model Award.

Her career in athletics administration began at Briar Cliff College where she was an Assistant Athletics Director (1994-96) and Interim Director of Athletics (1996).

The 1987 graduate cum laude of St. Olaf College was a four-year letterwinner in volleyball. She received her master's degree in athletic administration from Fort Hays State University in 1988.

Jarnigan has high school and college teaching and coaching experiences in Minnesota, Iowa and Kansas. She was the women's volleyball head coach at Bethel College (1989-94), Briar Cliff College (1994-96) and Carleton College (1996-99). Her 1992 Bethel College was a conference champion and she was named the conference Coach of the Year for the team's accomplishment.

One half of a coaching family, her husband, Jeff Jarnigan, is a professional football coach. He is the defensive coordinator for the San Jose SaberCats of the Arena Football League.

The Jarnigans are the parents of three children, Mary, Jack and Emily. They reside in Los Gatos, Calif.

San Jose State Fight Song
(performed after a victory in front of the Spartan fans)

Fight on for dear old San Jose State
Fight on for victory!

We are with you in every way
No matter what the price may be!

Onward for Sparta noble and true
Fight hard in everything you do!

And so we'll Fight! (RAH!) Win! (RAH!)
March onward down the field and we will win the day!

Lynn Meade
Associate Athletics Director/ Compliance

Lynn Meade was named the Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance at San Jose State University in September 2009. She was promoted to her present position earlier this year.

Meade joined the Spartans' administrative team after serving as the Director of Compliance at the University of Texas-El Paso from 2004 to 2009.

She began her athletics administration career in 2003 working for the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference and Metropolitan State College. In addition, Meade was the Compliance Services Intern for the Western Athletic Conference during the 2003-04 academic year.

The 1995 cum laude graduate of Hartwick College in Oneonta, N.Y., majored in anthropology and was a member of the women's soccer team. Meade earned her J.D. from the University of Denver in 2004.

She holds membership in the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators (NACWAA) and the National Association for Athletics Compliance (NAAC).

Matt Witty
Associate Athletics Director/ Business & Finance

Matt Witty is the Associate Athletics Director for Business and Finance. He assumed his current position in July 2010 and is the sports supervisor for men's and women's soccer and oversees equipment services.

Witty first joined the Spartans in 2001 in business operations and became the Assistant Ticket Manager from June 2002 until April 2004. After working at Marshall University and the University of Wisconsin in ticket operations, he returned to San Jose State in 2005 as the Assistant Director of Ticket Operations.

In June 2006, Witty accepted the position of Athletics Business Manager. He was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Business and Finance in July 2008.

The 2001 Ball State University graduate also has a master's degree in sports marketing from Marshall University. He is a member of College Athletic Business Management Association (CABMA) and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

He, his wife, Kathy, and daughter, Claire, reside in Campbell, Calif.

Michael Beaubien
Assistant Athletics Director/ Marketing & Multi-Media Services

Michael Beaubien, an administrator in the San Jose State Athletics Department since 2007, is the Assistant Athletics Director for Marketing and Multi-Media Services. His duties include serving as Webmaster for www.sjsuspartans.com, overseeing school spirit activities, and enhancing the spectator's experience at San Jose State home events.

The 2001 University of Arizona graduate majored in political science. He began his professional career at Columbia University in 2002 as the Director of Intramural Sports. Beaubien's first position in intercollegiate athletics was as the Assistant Athletics Director of Ticket operations and Promotions at Columbia.

Before joining the San Jose State athletics staff, Beaubien worked for J.P. Morgan Chase as a personal banker.

He is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA).

Beaubien, and his wife, Johanna, reside in Sunnyvale, Calif.

Darren Coelho
Assistant Athletics Director/ Ticket Operations

Darren Coelho, a San Jose State University athletics staff member since 2001 is the Assistant Athletics Director for Ticket Operations.

Coelho joined the Spartans originally as the Athletics Ticket Manager. In 2005, he was named Director of Ticket Operations. He was promoted to an Assistant Athletics Director in 2008. At San Jose State, he also served as the ticket manager for the 2001 through 2004 Silicon Valley Football Classic bowl games and the 2007 and 2010 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship games played in San Jose, Calif.

Coelho's experience in ticketing dates back to 1997 when he was named Ticket Manager for the San Jose Sabercats of the Arena Football League.

The 1996 San Jose State University graduate majored in public relations. He is a member of the board of directors of the Bay Area Professional Ticketing Association and serves on two boards for the International Ticketing Association (INTIX).

Coelho and his wife, Shannon, are the parents of twins, Jackson and Madison, and reside in Livermore, Calif.

Mike Chisholm
Assistant Athletics Director/ Development

Mike Chisholm was named San Jose State University's Assistant Athletics Director for Development in 2011 after serving 11 seasons as the play-by-play radio voice for the Spartan football and men's basketball.

Chisholm first joined San Jose State in 2000 as the department's first Director of Broadcasting and Sales. In 2003, he was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Broadcasting. His duties also included hosting the weekly football coach's shows, serving as producer and managing all aspects of the Spartan Radio Network.

The 1987 University of Wyoming graduate was the play-by-play voice for Texas A&M-Corpus Christi and worked for KEYS Radio (1440 AM, Corpus Christi) prior to moving to San Jose.

During his noteworthy broadcast career, The Wyoming Association of Broadcasters, the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association and the Associated Press Wyoming bureau honored him for his work in play-by-play broadcasting.

Chisholm, his wife, Lydia, and daughter, Karisse, live in San Jose.

Media Notes

Office Location

The athletics media relations office is located at 1393 S. 7th Street, San Jose, CA 95112. Parking and work space for the media are available.

Credential Requests

Credentials are issued for news and editorial coverage on a case-by-case basis to those filing game stories, accredited members from established media outlets, and personnel assigned by the sports information office. Requests should be directed to Lawrence Fan, Athletics Media Relations Director. The credential recipient agrees to all conditions set forth by the University relating to conduct and print, video, audio, digital and photographic game coverage.

Press Box

The Spartan Stadium press box is located on the 7th Street side of the stadium and is an open-air facility. Carry a jacket. The press box remains open three hours after each contest.

Game Day Parking

Media parking is located in Lot 1, located on 7th and Humboldt streets. Media parking passes for home games are issued by the sports information office.

Photographers

Credentials are issued to newspapers, wire services, video crews and team photographers. NCAA rules limit photographers to a wide area behind the restraining line around the playing field and outside the 25-yard lines.

Play-by-Play Television

Contact Lawrence Fan in writing at least 30 days prior to a game concerning video play-by-play of San Jose State University home football games.

Radio Broadcasts

The radio broadcast booth for the designated official flagship station of the visiting team at Spartan Stadium is Box B on the mezzanine level of the press box and has space for five working individuals. ISDN and regular telephone service are provided.

Production Truck & Satellite Uplink Parking

Production truck and satellite uplink parking is on the 7th street side of the stadium. Arrangements must be made to park a truck overnight inside Spartan Stadium.

Scouts

Space limitations prohibit seating and standing in the press box for scouting purposes.

Spotters & Statisticians

Requests for spotters and/or statisticians should be placed two weeks prior to a home game.

Statistics & Services

Game statistics, play-by-play accounts and post-game quotes are compiled and distributed. FAX service is available. A meal is available two hours before kickoff.

Team Practices & In-Person Interviews

During the season, the Spartans practice in the morning. In-person, post-practice interview opportunities with the student-athletes, generally, occur at approximately 11:00 a.m. on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Please contact the athletics media relations office in advance with your interview request.

Telephone Lines & Wireless Internet

Landline telephone service and wireless internet are available in the press box area.

Travel

Mineta San Jose International Airport is a 15-minute drive to Spartan Stadium. Alaska, American, Delta, Hawaiian, Horizon, Jet Blue, Northwest, Southwest, United and US Air are major domestic carriers with daily flights into San Jose. San Francisco and Oakland International Airports are 45-minute freeway drives to San Jose State University.

Weekday Telephone Interviews

Players are available for telephone interviews. Best interview days are Tuesday and Wednesday late mornings. Place a request at least a day in advance. Out-of-town telephone interviews with players originate from the media relations office at a mutually-convenient time.

Weekly Press Conference

Coach Mike MacIntyre and selected team members will participate in a weekly news conference at the Simpkins Stadium Center. The first press conference is Mon., Aug. 29. Call (408) 924-1217 for more details.

Weekly WAC Teleconference

Coach Mike MacIntyre participates in the weekly Western Athletic Conference's Monday teleconference beginning Aug. 29 through Nov. 28. Telephone number is (913) 312-9303. Replay begins at 2:00 p.m. (PT) and can be accessed by calling (877) 812-1320.
